Programme for Risk, Integrity, Safety, and Management (PRISM™)

UK and EU laws mandate proactive responses to stalking and harassment, requiring employers to comply with the Protection from Harassment Act 1997, the Stalking Protection Act 2019, and evolving online safety regulations.

The Worker Protection Act 2023 enforces stronger employer accountability, introducing liability for third-party harassment, compulsory preventative measures, and stricter enforcement penalties.

Subrosa Group (SRG)'s expert-led solutions help businesses stay compliant, mitigate risks, and foster a safe, respectful workplace through robust policies, tailored training, and proactive strategies. Stay ahead of legal changes – protect your employees, reputation, and business with SRG.
